Buildings and layout

■ 建筑物和布局

Mont-Saint-Michel is a tidal island and mainland commune in Normandy, France. The island lies approximately one kilometre (one-half nautical mile) off the country's north-western coast, at the mouth of the Couesnon River near Avranches and is 7 hectares (17 acres) in area. Mont-Saint-Michel and its surrounding bay were inscribed on the UNESCO list of World Heritage Sites in 1979 for its unique aesthetic and importance as a medieval Christian site. It is visited by more than 3 million people each year.

El Monte Saint-Michel (en francés mont Saint-Michel, «Monte San Miguel») es un pueblo construido sobre una pequeña isla rocosa del estuario del río Couesnon, en Normandía (Francia), alrededor de la Abadía del Monte Saint-Michel consagrada al culto del arcángel san Miguel. Esta isla es igualmente el centro natural, a falta de ser el centro geográfico, de la comuna Le Monte-Saint-Michel, perteneciente al cantón de Pontorson, en el departamento francés de Mancha. Los numerosos edificios del lugar están individualmente clasificados como monumentos históricos¹ o inscritos en el inventario suplementario de los monumentos históricos. El conjunto está declarado como un gran sitio de Francia (grand site de France).

Geography

Mont-Saint-Michel consists of leucogranite which solidified from an underground intrusion of molten magma about 525 million years ago, during the Cambrian period, as one of the younger parts of the Man-cellian granitic batholith. (Early studies of Mont-Saint-Michel by French geologists sometimes describe the leucogranite of the Mont as "granulite", but this granitic meaning of granulite is now obsolete.)

El monte Saint-Michel está situado a $48^{\circ}38'390''$ de latitud norte y a $1^{\circ}30'40''$ de longitud oeste, bañando su bahía el océano Atlántico. El islote tiene cerca de 960 metros de circunferencia y una superficie de aproximadamente 97 hectáreas, mientras que el peñasco se eleva a 92 metros de altitud sobre la bahía del Monte Saint-Michel

History

Mont-Saint-Michel was used in the sixth and seventh centuries as an Armorican stronghold of Gallo-Roman culture and power until it was ransacked by the Franks, thus ending the trans-channel culture that had stood since the departure of the Romans in 460. From roughly the fifth to the eighth century, Mont Saint-Michel belonged to the territory of Neustria and, in the early ninth century, was an important place in the marches of Neustria. Before the construction of the first monastic establishment in the 8th century, the island was called Mont Tombe (Latin: tumba). According to a legend, the archangel Michael appeared in 708 to Aubert of Avranches, the bishop of Avranches, and instructed him to build a church on the rocky islet.

La arquitectura prodigiosa del monte Saint-Michel y su bahía lo hacen el sitio turístico más concurrido de Normandía y uno de los primeros de Francia, con unos 3,2 millones de visitantes cada año. Una estatua de san Miguel Arcángel colocada en la cumbre de la iglesia abacial se erige a 170 metros por encima de la orilla. Los numerosos edificios del lugar están individualmente clasificados como monumentos históricos¹ o inscritos en el inventario suplementario de los monumentos históricos. El conjunto está declarado como un gran sitio de Francia (grand site de France). Declarado monumento histórico en 1862, el monte Saint-Michel figura desde 1979 en la lista del patrimonio de la humanidad de la Unesco, en cuya declaración están incluidos también la bahía y el antiguo molino de Moidrey, situado a unos cuatro kilómetros tierra adentro.
